Answer the Alarm!

Norway People Should Not Delay
If your kidneys are inflamed,
Don't stand around and do nothing.
Like a fire it will soon be beyond control.

You will get the alarm in time—
Backache, or dizziness or disorders of the urine.

Heed the warning.
Give your kidneys a rest by living more carefully.

Use Doan's Kidney Pills to help stamp
out the cause.

Profit by Norway woman's experience.
Mrs. Mary Gammon, 14 Beal St., says:

"I have kept Doan's Kidney Pills on hand for years, in fact, ever since I first took them nearly ten years ago. The symptoms I noticed at that time indicated kidney complaint. There was a dull, heavy ache across the small of back and often attacks of dizziness came over me.

Doan's Kidney Pills, which I got from Frank Kimball's Drug Store, proved fine
in relieving me of these troubles. I take Doan's off and on now and couldn't wish
for anything better to keep my kidneys
in good condition.

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Pills—the same that Mrs. Gammon had.

WORLD WAR POETRY

We surmise that Don C. Seitz of the New York World is author of those verses which appeared in that paper some twelve months ago.

The First To Die
Tears for the first to die!
Nay, do not deplore
This sacrifice—
They only go before
A mightier throng!

Tears for the first to die!
These drops of blood
Are but beginnings
Of a vaster flood
That soon must flow!

Not rather let us cry
"Cheers for the first to die!"
Who lead us on—
Whose souls are pilots
To a triumph won!

New York, Nov. 1917.

The Victory
The war is over.
The victory's won.
Might has lost
And right has won.

New York, Nov. 11, 1918.

The cutest of all the war verses written by Mr. Seitz's which he will own was published by Harper & Brother about a year ago was to wit:

Russia
Blind Giant groping towards Freedom's sun!
Weeds the most inhuman
These till the journey's won!

THEN AND NOW
Then.
I am the KAISER! The great WAR LORD!
Do you hear?
I am in partnership with Gott,
Do you hear?
With red banners all unfurled,
We will conquer all the world.
I and Gott will rule the world.
Do you hear?
On the land and on the sea,
We will King and partner be.
I and Gott,
Make all nations bend the knee;
They shall bow to Him and ME,
We'll enslave them all, you see,
I and Gott.

We will kill and we will ravish,
I and Gott,
We'll outstage the most savage,
I and Gott,
With my foot on breast of woman,
Dastard deeds the most inhuman,
We will spare no child nor woman,
I and Gott.

NOW.
My partner, Gott, has gone away
And left me all alone;
Those fighting "Yanks" came over here
And raked me with my throne.
My reign is done; my power is gone;
My days of loot are over.
I knew full well that this would be,
When those Yankee boys came over.
I have always longed to rule the world,
And be a mighty King;
And stand with Gott, if not above,
And order everything.
They say that history'll write my deeds
In words of deepest hate;
The very blackest page of all,
To have, will be my fate.

An Ishmael I, with every hand
Upbraided with deadly blow;
In all this world is there one place
Where I can safely go?
My bestial greed of power and wealth,
Has earned the hate of all;
The tens of thousands I have slain
Will damn my quaking soul.

My prince and I must skulk away
Like felons, through the dark;
Must cover and sink, lest we may hear
The assassin's pistol click.
No friend have we, on land nor sea,
Our very name, a curse,
Sometimes I think we'd better ride
In a "Made in Germany" hearse.

—MRS. ISA GERTRUDE BOWEN.

THE YANKS' RETURN
When the Yankees came sailing home again,
Hurrah! Hurrah!
From battlefields and coils of pain,
Hurrah! Hurrah!
The bells will ring and the whistles blow,
And we'll have a grand jubilee here below,
When the Yankees come sailing home.
The Kaiser is in exile now,
Hurrah! Hurrah!
The royal wreath stripped from his brow,
Hurrah! Hurrah!
For General Foch has gained the day,
And Germany is got to pay;
When the Yankees come sailing home,
And we'll shout and cheer,
When the Yankees come sailing home.
The Transports they will crowd be,
Hurrah! Hurrah!
They're sailing now from danger free,
Hurrah! Hurrah!
No more the deadly submarine,
Shall Ocean's dark blue waters screen,
When the Yankees come sailing home.
O, Pershing now a hero is!
Hurrah! Hurrah!
And wears the Palm of Victory,
Hurrah! Hurrah!
And when Our Boys come over the Sea,
We'll give them a welcoming three times three;
And we'll all Hurrah,
When the Yankees come sailing home.
The Stars and Stripes shall ever wave,
Hurrah! Hurrah!
O'er liberated bond and slave,
Hurrah! Hurrah!
For cursed Autocracy is dead,
Democracy shall reign instead;
And we'll all be gay,
When the Yankees come sailing home.

F. B. Henley.

CANNOT CONCEAL GERMAN ORIGIN
No person of German extraction, will be granted permission to adopt an American name by State Supreme Court Justice Russell Benedict. In denying a change of name Justice Benedict said:
"I for one will not grant permission for people to change their names where the effect of doing so is to enable persons of Germanic extraction to conceal their origin and practice deception on persons who deal with them in ignorance of such origin. Neither will I permit the adoption of names of American families by foreigners. Such subterfuges can not or at least ought not to be tolerated."

WATERFORD

Elbridge Brackett Pike
Elbridge B. Pike was born in Oxford,
Maine, June 12, 1861 and with his parents, Seth and Polly Brackett Pike, removed to Pike Hill in Norway, when fourteen years of age. He was married to Lizzie D. Flint of Waterford in 1890.

They lived for a time in Bethel, but in 1894 came to Waterford and purchased the farm on which Mrs. Pike's former home, where they have since resided.

To them was born a son, Harold S.,
who has been associated with his father
under the firm name of E. B. Pike & Son, in carrying on the farm for several years past and who was married last April to June Hillson of Bethel's Mills.

Mr. Pike has been a successful farmer and has served his town in the office of selectman for three years recently. He passed from this life, Friday, Dec. 13,
after a protracted illness. Services were held at his late home Sunday. Rev. G.
W. Sims officiated and interment was made in Elm Vale Cemetery.

Besides the wife and son mentioned above, Mr. Pike is survived by two sisters, Helen and Stella Pike who until recently resided in Norway, but now make their home in Old Orchard.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Fillebrown leave
Saturday to spend Christmas at his home
in Ayer and also help celebrate his parents' fortieth wedding anniversary which occurs on Christmas Day.

Kodak Chapter O. E. S. at its annual meeting Friday evening elected the following officers:

Worthy Matron—Edith G. Millett.
Worthy Patron—George L. Rice.
Associate Matron—Mrs. W. W. Fillebrown.
Secretary—Mrs. Addison Millett.
Treasurer—Mrs. W. W. Watson.
Conductress—Mrs. G. A. Miller.
Associate Conductress—Mrs. V. V. Kneeland.

A. G. Morse's truck did not run Monday as the chauffeur, John Willis, was sick with a severe cold.

The Christmas concert this year will be held in the Masonic Hall on Christmas eve.

Urban Tyler has had a telephone installed.

Mrs. Jane Stone has returned from Marine, Mass., for a visit with her sister, Mrs. Nancy Jewett.

Friends of Mrs. Elsie Heath Howes
have learned of the death, recently, of her husband, Harry Howes. They had been married about a year and their son
was but three weeks old on the day of his father's funeral.

One Father in Ten

One father in ten may—with good fortune—
leave to his family a nest-egg of income-earning funds.

But every father can start now to teach his children the sound principles of saving and investment.

A War Savings Certificate, carrying from one to twenty five-dollar W. S. S. Stamps, deposited in your strong box in the name of son or daughter, is not only the best of Christmas gifts, but the beginning of a business education.
That certificate can never be worth less than its cost; it grows in value every day you hold it. Your one stamp is just as sound as if you had ten thousand like it. A gold coin is not so safe, because you can register the stamp as your child's property. Never before has such a gilt-edge government security been brought to the Christmas tree.

Lend your money to the Government to pay its overdue war bills, and you will receive the Government's bond (in the form of War Savings Stamps) to pay back with interest. Let this bond be your gift to wife or child.

OXFORD

Pvt. James L. Kay Returns
Private James L. Kay arrived at New York City, Thursday on the United States hospital ship Mercy. His left leg and left arm are gone as the result of active fighting with the infantry forces at Chateau-Thierry, and suffering from flesh wounds in the right leg and right arm. He is a member of Company F, 38th Infantry. Several men fighting with Kay at the time were killed. Kay after leaving the ship told a reporter that he was anxious to get home to Maine and in spite of his handicap said that he feared little difficulty in securing a position.

Private Kay is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James L. Kay of Oxford. He graduated from Oxford High School and at the time of entering the service at Camp Devens was taking a preparatory course at Crosby Academy at Ashburton, Mass. Throughout his school and pre-school years, Kay won distinction as a base ball pitcher and also played the game overseas.

Private Kay had a wrist watch, the gift of friends at Oxford, fastened above the stump of one arm just below the shoulder. Kay thought he would tell the folks just what he meant when he wrote that he was wounded. He is healthy and sound enough—but he lost part of his left arm and part of his left leg. He's going to take a short "lay-off" and then "go to work."

DENMARK

Mrs. Lizzie Pendexter

Mrs. Lizzie Pendexter passed away at her home in the upper village Tuesday morning, Dec. 3rd, after a lingering illness of locomotor ataxia, aged 76 years. Funeral services were held at the house Thursday at 1 o'clock which was largely attended. Rev. Mr. Hamilton of Fryeburg officiating, assisted by Mrs. Kate Sanborn. Interment took place in the family lot in the lower village cemetery.

Two sons survive, Elwood, who resides at the home, and Arthur of Fryeburg, also one granddaughter. The flowers were many and beautiful, emblematic of the beautiful, unassuming life of the deceased, in whose passing away a large circle of neighbors and friends are left to mourn and of whom she will be held in loving memory.

Mrs. Pendexter was born in Sebago, 76 years ago. She was a sister of the late George W. Gray of Denmark. She married the late C. O. Pendexter, and came to Denmark fifty years ago. Mr. Pendexter passed away several years ago.

NORWAY LADY EXPLORES
VOLCANO

(Written by Dora L. Kirwin on a recent visit to Mt. Hekla in Iceland. Continued from Advertiser Dec. 6 and 12.)

The trail through the fourth gulch was more shallow, and the path through it followed the seashore for some distance. This trail or road from Kaupo to Kipa-hulu was made of stone, over a hundred years ago, by Hawaiians. It is a good substantial road, but not especially smooth to walk on. An auto could not possibly go over it; in fact nothing but
an animal or man on foot could travel it,
I should say. Although it is told that one man went over it with a cart and horse!

While climbing out of the first gulch,
two Orientals overtook us, with two pack donkeys. "E. G." told them that he would give them a dollar to take our packs on to Kipahulu and leave them at the plantation store. So we travelled light, and could therefore enjoy the gulches more. The day was hot and sunny, and the grades steep, and we were glad to be rid of our heavy burdens. So relieved was the Bard, that he burst forth in gratitude as he had done many times before. And right here, while we are on the subject of poetry, we faintly
would mention a little detail—"Doc's towel." A small, insignificant little face-towel, bashfully peeping from Doc's shirtfront, to which it was pinned with a huge safety pin, but destined to provide the butt for many cruel, cutting and almost subduing remarks on the part of the Entire Company. Doc, realizing his propensities for perspiring freely under exertion, had anticipated the need for something more copious in quantity, and absorbing qualities than an ordinary pocket-handkerchief, so he had hit on the happy thought of a towel. In the colder altitudes he had not required its use, and it hung forlornly unused and unappreciated. But now, in these warmer regions, it was slowly but surely coming into its own, and made an excellent face mop.

And when this region of swimming pools
was reached, and swims were in order—the very single towel in the outfit was on,
miles ahead, on those donkeys' backs.—
Mighty towel became a true hero, a friend indeed in the time of need. Imagine, if you can, seven adults from the cooling waters of the stream, Alelelele,
drying in turns on one small face-towel.
It almost approached a miracle. How could it be done? Well, it wasn't; as a matter of fact, everyone, including Doc
himself, used their bandana handkerchiefs
for a towel.

Dodo had taken exhaustive notes as we went along, and her complete diary gives a very good account of the scenes as they came.

On the trail by the sea in the last gulch,
the water was rolling the biggest stones
that I have ever seen, on the shore. The roar as the waves rolled these rocks back and forth was tremendous. We sat for a time and watched and listened.

After leaving the gulches we passed
again through more of the luxuriant vegetation; mango, orange, banana and papaya trees. At 5 P. M. we arrived at the plantation of Kipahulu, and stopped at the store. There was Paul Fassoth to greet us, with a smile stretching from ear
to ear; the party was introduced and we went into the office. Paul said they had word of our coming, and the packs belonging to the store gave them evidence of our approach that day, and they were prepared to entertain us over night. Mr.
Fassoth appeared, with John. They took us, bag and baggage, up to the house. Comfortable quarters, and a refreshing bath awaited us. It was here that we saw our first newspapers since leaving home. Surprising how much could happen—and with us away, too!

War went on as usual, and it seemed as though they were making better progress
without us than they had been when we were in the midst of civilization. There were plenty of dogs and cats for Lillian to pet, too. The girls were taken for a tour of the sugar mill, and upon their return they were introduced to Hans, another son, who is overseer of the plantation, and Martin, another son, who is the chemist. Again we observed that this part of the island was very much of a garden, when we saw roses, citron, lemons
and oranges, as well as bananas growing wild, and grapes thriving well.

Our supper was bountiful and good:
soup, fried turtle steak, beans, peas, potatoes, asparagus, preserves and jellies, canned pears and jelly roll, milk. It all tasted good, indeed, to our whetted appetites. After a pleasant evening with the family, we returned, and the girls were awakened at 4 A. M. with the mill whistle, and an hour later a voice outside their cottage shouted, "Are you ladies
going for a ride this morning?" Lill, Betty and Dodo jumped out of bed at once and said, "Yes." They were told the horses would soon be at the door, so they hurried around, dressing in the half-light with difficulty especially since they were somewhat stiff from walking. As soon as the horses were at the door the girls were ready, mounted them and rode off. John rode with them, for they were to ride over the plantation, and it was just daylight. They soon left the road for a trail through the cane, and at last found themselves several hundred feet from the road. It was fun to watch the sunrise over the mountain and sea. Then they crossed several streams rode under water-flume, across a freshly cut canefield, and up the edge of a field
ch. Mr. Fassoth joined them, looking like a General on horseback. On the return trip they passed many workmen cutting cane. The flume was carrying it down to the mill. At 7:30 they were back, ready for breakfast. Fruit, oatmeal, muffins, ham and eggs, jelly roll,
coffee; we were certainly entertained in a truly hospitable way! We then made haste to prepare for leaving. Our knap-
sacks, save one, were left at the store to
be shipped on to us at Haiku by boat.
This lightened our load considerably, because from here on, we had to pack only lunch supplies, as we would be sleeping indoors until we reached home. We all went through the mill, and then said
farewell to our host and his splendid sons, leaving at 9:30 for Hana.

A short distance on our way we met John, who indicated to us the way to reach the 500-ft waterfall. E. G., Dan and Lillian decided to take the side trip,
and were well rewarded for their trouble,
securing some good pictures of the fall.
The rest of us lazily wandered on. The walk that morning was fairly easy and pleasant, and out of pretty gulches, with lovely waterfalls. This time we had a good and fairly level road.

Possibly the Waialua gulch and waterfall were among the most beautiful of that morning's scenes. The auto left us at Mr. Drummond's home, where we waited for over two hours for the rest of our party. They came, enthusiastic over their trip and the glories of the sights
they saw in the waterfall. In the meantime, Beatrice, the daughter of the fam-

ly, had been grinding up pears, papaya,
and cucumber; and later, tea and milk,
and honey. After luncheon we went into the house and had some music. We left about 3:30 P. M., Beatrice loading us up with beautiful flowers. We made good time to Hana, walking on an average of a mile twenty minutes. Mr. T. G. had telephoned about to the Club House to order our supper. We arrived and sat down to supper at 5:30 P. M., having walked about 12 miles that day. Nice supper; roast beef, potatoes, rice, honey, coffee and cake. We did justice to this
with plenty of laughter and enjoyment.
Several had to leave the table, they got to laughing so hard. Somehow or other,
"Doc" seemed to be the "butt" of the jokes. The boys took refuge at the home of the Rev. Mr. Lake, while the girls went to the only hotel in the town, and had a room in the rooming hotel behind a Chinese store. However, they were very comfortable; everything was very clean. Then we all went to the movies, wearing our flannel shirt, red bandana and hiking trousers. The place was full of Orientals, Filipinos and Hawaiians. When we entered there was quite a commotion. Evidently we were quite "a show" to them, and had been,
as we walked the streets before dark.

We went into the gallery, which was just about large enough to accommodate
us. Afterward, however, Mr. Chalmers and his family sat there. He is manager of the plantation, a Scotchman.
From our elevated position we had great fun watching the audience. The play was "Black Orchids," a rather gruesome tale. After it was over, and we stepped out into the night, the moonlight on the water was gorgeous. Although a small plantation town, the autos by the movie
hall did justice to a metropolis. We had to scamper to avoid being run over. We passed our "hotel" and went down on-
to the finest beach of lovely smooth black
sand. The girls went into the shadow of the cliff, and the man undressed in the
protecting lee of a fishing sampan, and
all enjoyed a swim who felt so inclined.

Aug. 25. Up at 5 A. M., breakfast at 6:30 A. M., at the Chinese Club-house.
We had a good breakfast of fruit, ham
and eggs, coffee. At a little after 7 A.
M. we were on our way to Kaena, bag
and baggage, on a hot day. As we had 13 miles ahead of us for the day, we walked at the rate of about three miles an hour. Our walk was along a road, instead of a trail and was not especially
varied, excepting by the quantity of thin-
ble berries we picked and ate. At about 11 A. M., we arrived at a good sized
stream and waterfall, where we stopped
for luncheon. The water tasted
so good after the long, hot walk!
Some went in wading, others went
in swimming after two hours spent
there, we proceeded on our way. After four miles before we came to the Ditch
Trail. Then commenced the loveliest
walk we had had, in and out of gulches
past numerous waterfalls, where we rested for a time to watch them. Finally
we reached Kaena Gulch. We just stopped, when we turned the corner to look
at it, for it was so immense and wonder-
ful. Then we walked a little on the down
grade for some time, in and out of the
curved sides of the Gulch, until finally we
made a decided descent down the very steep wall of the Gulch. After about a mile and a half of that we came to the home of Mr. Weight, the man in charge
of the Ditch at that end. This was our hotel for the night. A little Hawaiian
girl in white, with a lei of ginger blossoms around her neck, met us at the gate.
Next Mr. and Mrs. Weight greeted us,
and showed us our rooms. Mr. Bartlett
had been at the place twice before, on his
way through. We had a bath and were ready for dinner at 5:30 P. M. Oh,
such a good dinner! Everything so excellent, and an abundance of it. After ward, we decided for an hour or so in our stockinged feet, for our heavy shoes were discarded for a while. We were quite frisky! Mr. Weight thought we were
in good condition for people who had travelled so far; and so we were. Here
again we found newspapers and for the first time in days read the news. At 9:
30 we retired and enjoyed a good
night's rest in comfortable beds.

Aug. 26th, at 7:30 we enjoyed a good
breakfast of cornmeal mush, banana, muffins, fish cakes, and coffee. Then the party decided to remain over here an extra day, and on the trail up to the top of the Pali overlooking the valley. It was an enjoyable hike, and coming back we filled
our hats with luscious thimble-berries,
which we enjoyed as dessert for dinner
that evening. In the afternoon some
of us went down the next valley, where
others of us went down to Lower Kaena,
by auto, and then enjoyed a swim on the
return trip in the pools not far below Mr.
Weight's house. Rain came on while Mr.
Bartlett and Doc were in swimming,
and, just as we wouldn't get wet Bart-
lett came out of the water and put on his
—hat! He says that, as the rain was coming straight down, and the brim was
fairly wide, he didn't get very wet!
This valley abounded in wild banana
trees; they were growing in profusion on
every hill.

We all dined at 5 P. M. on oysters, fried rabbit, and taro, with thimble-berries and cream, and coffee. In the evening we played games and did tricks.
Mrs. Weight and Dodo dressed up in men's old clothes and entered the front
way, pretending to be very much fatigued and asked for a night's lodging. They foiled us for a while; but after they hob-
led up the steps the secret was out.
Lights out at 10 P. M.

Aug. 27. Up at 6:30 A. M. and everything packed before 7:30 breakfast. By 8 A. M. we were on our way to Kaialua, 12 miles distant by the Ditch Trail for which the Island of Maui is famous. This is one of the most wonderful scenic trips
that I can recall. It is a beautiful walk —wonderful gulches, and waterfalls—
and a truly hospitable way! We then made
haste to prepare for leaving. Our knap-
sacks, save one, were left at the store to

hall did justice to a metropolis. We had
to scamper to avoid being run over. We
passed our "hotel" and went down on-
to the finest beach of lovely smooth black
sand. The girls went into the shadow of
the cliff, and the man undressed in the
protecting lee of a fishing sampan, and
all enjoyed a swim who felt so inclined.

Aug. 25. Up at 5 A. M., breakfast at 6:30 A. M., at the Chinese Club-house.
We had a good breakfast of fruit, ham
and eggs, coffee. At a little after 7 A.
M. we were on our way to Kaena, bag
and baggage, on a hot day. As we had 13 miles ahead of us for the day, we walked at the rate of about three miles an hour. Our walk was along a road, instead of a trail and was not especially
varied, excepting by the quantity of thin-
ble berries we picked and ate. At about 11 A. M., we arrived at a good sized
stream and waterfall, where we stopped
for luncheon. The water tasted
so good after the long, hot walk!
Some went in wading, others went
in swimming after two hours spent
there, we proceeded on our way. After
four miles before we came to the Ditch
Trail. Then commenced the loveliest
walk we had had, in and out of gulches
past numerous waterfalls, where we rested for a time to watch them. Finally
we reached Kaena Gulch. We just stopped, when we turned the corner to look
at it, for it was so immense and wonder-
ful. Then we walked a little on the down
grade for some time, in and out of the
curved sides of the Gulch, until finally we
made a decided descent down the very
steep wall of the Gulch. After about a mile and a half of that we came to the home of Mr. Weight, the man in charge
of the Ditch at that end. This was our hotel for the night. A little Hawaiian
girl in white, with a lei of ginger bloss-
oms around her neck, met us at the gate.
Next Mr. and Mrs. Weight greeted us,
and showed us our rooms. Mr. Bartlett
had been at the place twice before, on his
way through. We had a bath and were
ready for dinner at 5:30 P. M. Oh,
such a good dinner! Everything so excellent, and an abundance of it. After
ward, we decided for an hour or so in our
stockinged feet, for our heavy shoes were
discarded for a while. We were quite
frisky! Mr. Weight thought we were
in good condition for people who had
travelled so far; and so we were. Here
again we found newspapers and for the
first time in days read the news. At 9:
30 we retired and enjoyed a good
night's rest in comfortable beds.

Aug. 26th, at 7:30 we enjoyed a good
breakfast of cornmeal mush, banana, muf-
fins, fish cakes, and coffee. Then the
party decided to remain over here an extra day, and on the trail up to the top of
the Pali overlooking the valley. It was an
enjoyable hike, and coming back we filled
our hats with luscious thimble-berries,
which we enjoyed as dessert for dinner
that evening. In the afternoon some
of us went down the next valley, where
others of us went down to Lower Kaena,
by auto, and then enjoyed a swim on the
return trip in the pools not far below Mr.
Weight's house. Rain came on while Mr.
Bartlett and Doc were in swimming,
and, just as we wouldn't get wet Bart-
lett came out of the water and put on his
—hat! He says that, as the rain was
coming straight down, and the brim was
fairly wide, he didn't get very wet!
This valley abounded in wild banana
trees; they were growing in profusion on
every hill.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Kendall and children
of Lovell visited at Charles Chaplins, Sunday.

Billie McAlister stayed Tuesday and Wednesday at McAlister's.
Schools were closed in this place Monday on account of influenza. There are a number of cases in town and the only doctor we can get is Doctor Bartlett of Norway and will be impossible to get him this winter, it is so far, a distance of twenty miles or more.

Mrs. Ome McAlister helped her sister, Mrs. Edith Chaplin do some paper hanging, Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Merton McAlister are both sick with influenza. Mrs. Bert Nelson cared for them until Mrs. McAlister's mother, Mrs. Lively Morse of Milan, N.
H., could get here.

Mrs. Frank McAlister has been staying with her daughter, Maybelle Barker,
as her three children have been sick with tonsillitis.

Will Decker shot a small deer Thursday, making him his number.

Algie McAlister is ill with pneumonia, developing from influenza. He is under the care of a nurse.

Frank McAlister dressed off a nice hog,
Saturday.

Christmastide

The Time of All the Year for Cheerfulness and Optimism

Let a smile and a cheery word be our welcome to this season of Christmas with its heritage of hopefulness. Let us keep the spirit of Christmas glowing with a light that reflects our thankfulness for the splendid lessons of many Christmases past, and our confidence in the undeniable benefits of many Christmases to come.

Let us not take one iota from the Yuletide happiness by omitting any of its beautiful traditions and long-standing customs, let us be cheerful—and persist on cheerfulness. So doing help us and those about us, and, in unending progression, "Those of our boys far away." Let this cheerfulness be expressed by the usual Christmas tokens of good will and friendship and love—whether that be the kindly word, the hearty handshake or the thoughtful remembrance.

Let us make this the Christmas of all Christmases for the sake of yourselves and, far above that, for the sake of this great, glorious Country of ours, and what it has accomplished for the cause of Liberty, Justice and Democracy.

RED CROSS AND THE BOYS

No nation has ever yet with full success assimilated a returning army. After our Civil War there was much chaos in both South and North. But no nation ever had such an organization as the Red Cross—so well organized, well equipped, experienced. We must make this war set a new record—we must take "The Boys" back into our life without mishap, without bitterness, without crime. It will not be easy. The Red Cross must bear the brunt of the task.

There are boys still missing—and relatives and friends grow agonized. The Red Cross has undertaken to find every one of these boys, to report to every parent. Slight task? Not at all. And think of the comfort that news will bring.

There are boys returning ill and war-worn, perils discouraged. Who will blame them if they lose heart? The Red Cross has undertaken to see them safe back to health, not to desert them after their sacrifice. But for them WE might even now be hearing German guns in our towns. Not until the boys are sound can we stop.

There are families of soldiers in dire need. Babies have come, rent is due, food has failed, clothing is too costly for purchase. Some families have been evicted by heartless landlords, others have been split apart by poverty. Some wives of soldiers have been forced to cruel work for the bare necessities of life. Children have been taken from school. The Red Cross has undertaken to look after these unfortunate ones—the least we can do in return for their sacrifice for us.

It will be difficult to adapt two million men fresh from fields of war to the unexciting pursuits of peace. No nation has ever been entirely successful in this task. If we are not now successful, there will be great misery. If we loyally support the Red Cross, we have even chances to succeed, to become normal, really to win the war. Otherwise, in some measure we have lost the fight.

EAST SUMNER

WILSON'S MILLS
Mrs. Mary Linnell has gone to Auburn again for medical treatment as the influenza left her in very poor health. Mrs. A. W. Linnell is keeping house for her. Oliver Lancaster who has been doing chores for Elvira Storey went on a deer hunt and got lost in the woods between the Magalloway and Diamond rivers; it also made a very disagreeable, all-night job for those that turned out to find him, when he did not show up at night. He had finally struck the tote road and came to Hell Gate Camp during the night, where he was located by telephone in the morning.

Friday night a free dance was given at grange hall by Messrs. Emino & Cray, leasers of the Dartmouth College farms, for the past five years. It was given as a farewell party to their friends of which they had many, on the river. Now they will return to their old positions at Gorham. The Red Cross Committee served refreshments of cake, sandwiches and coffee. From the sale the Red Cross realized $18.50.

The thaw has made bad roads, tote teams are now hauling supplies to the camps.

FRYEBOUR
T. L. Eastman is confined to the house with a severe cold. Charles Kimball who has been working in Bartlett is at the home of his sister, Mrs. C. T. Ladd, suffering with gall stones. Mrs. John Hutchins and Mollie Hutchins were in West Baldwin for the week end at R. F. Chase's. Kate Abbott who teaches at Farmington Normal school, is at home for her vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Nichols have been ill for the past week. Archie Hurd, who has been at Camp Wright, L. I., returned to his home Saturday. He has had quite an experience in the last few months. Chester Tarbox of Harrison was a guest at his uncle's, W. R. Tarbox's, Friday.

A very nice supper was served at the Congregational vestry Friday night.

NORTHEAST LOVELL
A number of people here in town are very sick with influenza. John Kendall is building a new wood shed. Sergeant Charles Stanford has returned home from war and we are glad to welcome him here.

Mr. and Mrs. George Files and son were guests at G. A. Kimball Sunday at the Center. Flossie Keniston is home from Standish. Jim Brackett killed a 12 pointed buck deer recently and George Files shot a fine doe. Herbert Taylor and Henry Horn were also lucky ones, they shot four nice ones the past season.

Mrs. Ben. Heald of Heald's Lake has been visiting at Mrs. Bessie Barker's at Fryeburg the past week. Edward Lock has returned home after hunting a week here and boarding at Elmer Pike's.

Charles Stanford and Ted Pottle took dinner Sunday at George Eastman's. The new stable at the vestry is a great improvement and no doubt horses will appreciate their warm shelter Sunday this winter.

CARD OF THANKS
We wish to express our sincere thanks to our neighbors and friends for their sympathy in our recent loss. To Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Morse for their helpfulness, and to Rev. G. W. Sias for his comforting words.

MARRIAGE INTENTIONS
Elwood Pierce and Thelma E. Verrill, both of West Paris.

DEATHS
In Norway, Dec. 17, Justin E. McFarlane, aged 81 years, 4 months and 25 days.
In Watford, Dec. 13, Elbridge Brackett Pike, aged 87 years, 8 months and 1 day.
In West Paris, Dec. 13, Mrs. Nellie (Dunham) of Maine, aged 85 years and 35 days.
In Rockland, Dec. 13, Carroll J. Gray, aged 59 years.
In South Rumford, Dec. 16, Virgil E. Fuller, aged 81 years and 8 months.
In North Watford, Dec. 13, Sumner Grover, aged 69 years.
In North Watford, Dec. 14, Alphonso Charles, aged 64 years.

MARRIAGES
In Paris, Dec. 11, by Rev. C. Wellington Rogers, Henry T. Tirrell of Canton and Harriet A. Hopper of Paris.
In Biddeford, Nov. 28, by Rev. Allen Brown, Ralph N. Gilbert of Rumford and Zilda Barnes of Biddeford.

BIRTHS
In Auburn, Dec. 3, to Mildred (Pottle) and Ir. Davidson, a son.
In East Otisfield, Dec. 14, to the wife of Loren Stearns, a daughter, Martha Adela.
In Biddeford, Dec. 14, to the wife of Leslie Starbird of South Paris, a son.

In Canton Point, Dec. 5, to the wife of Ray R. Brown, a son.

ALBANY
The folks in this vicinity was saddened to hear of the death of Sumner Grover of North Watford. He was formerly one of our old neighbors at Hunt's Corner and a very kind and obliging man in every respect and was liked by all. He leaves a wife, two daughters, two sons and two brothers to mourn their loss. Saturday morning there was about four inches of snow on the ground with quite a little crust.

Arthur Clark of South Paris and Fred Clark of Bolster's Mills were up here, waiting four days last week. I guess they were obliged to go home about the same way as the deer hunters from Lewiston and Auburn did a few days ago—without any deer.

Robert Stearns and family who are stopping up in Ketchum, Newry, was down Friday to his old home and helped butcher two pigs and a beef creature. Mr. Stearns is logging up in Ketchum this winter.

A. A. Bruce has his pulp timber nearly all saved that he got of George Cummings.

Alfred Leighton seems to be the best butcher in our town at the present time. It is quite impossible to hire a good butcher to dress off beef for the hides are worth one cent more per pound if they are taken off the new way.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is catarrh. Catarrh being greatly influenced by constitutional conditions requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Medicine is taken internally and acts through the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, giving the system strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in the curative powers of Hall's Catarrh Medicine that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

WEST PARIS

Mrs. Nellie Dunham Bacon
Mrs. Nellie Dunham Bacon died at her late home Friday morning of internal malignancy. She has been a great sufferer for several months, bearing it all with quiet patience and her ever thoughtfulness of others.

She was a member of the Universalist church and Camp Fire girls. She was born at North Paris 35 years ago and was the oldest daughter of William F. Dunham, now of Lynn, Mass., and Mrs. May Dunham Lovejoy of Portland. She married Carroll A. Bacon, who has tenderly cared for her during her sickness.

She leaves a devoted son, Earle, to whom his mother was his dearest companion, and a 13-year-old daughter, Margaret, who sadly misses her mother's loving care. She also leaves two sisters, Annie, wife of Harry Rowe and Alice, wife of Rennie Higgins, and a brother, who is in the service of his country in the U. S. Navy, and a grandmother, Mrs. Martha Dunham.

The funeral was held in the Universalist church, Sunday, at 1:30 p. m., Rev. H. A. Markley officiating. The flowers were many and very beautiful.

Sale, Supper and Entertainment
The sale, supper and entertainment that was held last week, Thursday, by the Ladies' Aid and Circle, was very successful both socially and financially. All the ladies worked together most harmoniously. The sale tables of aprons, fancy articles were kept separately, but the supper and door money was divided equally after all expenses were deducted. The proceeds go to the benefit of repairs on the separate church properties of each society.

The entertainment consisted mostly of musical number with one reading: "America, the Beautiful, the Beautiful, the Wonderful" by Mrs. Jennie Cummings, and a recitation "Peace" by Della M. Cole. Mrs. Stella W. Burnham and Ruth Graves of South Paris very kindly assisted and gave their services. Their piano duet was a noted French production which was encased by "Call to the Colors."

But the vocal solos by Miss Graves were what the audience enjoyed about the most of anything. She has a sweet voice and knows how to use it. Her imitation in the bird song and the serious parts and the humorous with her clear enunciation was most delightful. She sang "Forever, Love, Forever," "April Showers," "Song of Spring" and "When the Boys Come Home." One gentleman remarked that it was of the price of the entertainment just to hear her sing. The rest of the musical numbers were given by our best local talent. They were: piano duet, by Mrs. D. A. Grover, "Invitation to the Dance" and "To a Wild Rose," vocal solo by Mr. Grover, "When the Great Red Dawn is Shining" and the "Armourer's Song." Vocal solo by Marjorie McAllister, "Is There a Letter for Me" and "Smile." Vocal duet by Miss McAllister and C. A. Churchill "Missouri" with encore.

The school orchestra of four mandolins, one violin and piano gave two very pleasing numbers, also orchestral music by Mrs. Howard McKee, piano; Mr. McKee, first violin, and Myra T. Austin, second violin: "Soldiers' Blood," "Symphony" with encore. A good hour and a half program that was very enjoyable.

There are a number of sick ones including several in Mrs. Gertrude Marston's home.

Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Wyman and Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Grover are attending State Grange in Portland.

The speaker, Frank Dudley of Auburn, who spoke at the all day meeting of the grange, Saturday, was very interesting and instructive. Mr. Dudley is State Horticulturist and has mounted specimens of insects and other pests that come to the farmers' crops of corn and orchards. He has been in the work for sixteen years and travels about giving lectures and instructing people how to guard against these pests. The election of officers was divided with only two or three changes.

Roscoe Tuell is quite sick with an acute kidney trouble. His daughter, Mrs. J. L. Bowker of Portland, is here with her parents.

Mrs. Ella Haines of Cambridge, Mass., is the guest of her brother, Lewis M. Mann.

Mrs. Alice Farrington of Locke's Mills is visiting Mrs. Clara Riddon.

Maynard Chase has returned home from Camp Devens.

Mrs. Betsey G. Curtis passed her 89th birthday, Dec. 9. She had five guests that day: Mr. and Mrs. Daniel C. Churchill. Mr. Churchill is the oldest man in Paris, and carries the Boston Post case.

NORTH PARIS

Mrs. L. J. Trask, Mrs. John Ross and Lena Ross went to Norway and South Paris Saturday, shopping.

Earle Hollis spent the week end with his sister, Mrs. A. B. Chute, at Auburn.

Ralph McAllister, Charles Stevens and Howard Conant are home from Bates College for the Christmas vacation.

Charlie Stevens is very sick with bronchitis.

Edith Bradford of Buckfield visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Bradford, first of the week.

Elbridge Ryerson of Lincoln visited his niece, Mrs. Emma Hollis and family last week.

Rupert Robbins and wife have finished work at Poland Spring and returned to their home at the village. Mr. Robbins is working in his blacksmith shop.

Beatrice Andrews is spending the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Andrews.

Mrs. Jessie Abbott canvassed this district on the Red Cross drive.

Fred Cummings of Freeport visited friends in Paris and Buckfield last week.

Complaint Filed

A complaint was filed at the office of the Public Utilities Commission Monday against the Oxford Electric Company, formerly the Norway & Paris St. Railway.
The complaint states that on Oct. 5, 1918, the Oxford Electric Company ceased to operate its street railway, and has neglected to operate the road, and to provide any car, or to provide any transportation or conveyance for public travel upon the streets of Norway and South Paris, or over its lines in the towns of Norway and Paris, and has utterly abandoned the operation of the railway, to the great inconvenience, detriment and damage of the citizens of the community served by this street railway and the public at large.

The complaint is signed by the following residents of Norway and South Paris: Albert J. Stearns, attorney at law, Norway; Henry B. Foster, merchant, Norway; John W. Wood, shoe manufacturer, Norway; Stephen O. Johnson, shoe manufacturer, Norway; H. Walter Brown, manufacturer, Norway; Albion L. Buck, merchant, Norway; Z. L. Merchant, merchant, Norway; R. Robert Seavey, hotel keeper, Norway; E. S. Cummings, manufacturer, Norway; N. Dayton Bolster, merchant, South Paris; Alton G. Wheeler, lawyer, South Paris; W. H. Wheeler, insurance agent, South Paris; Walter L. Gray, lawyer, South Paris; George R. Morton, manufacturer, South Paris; L. L. Mason, manufacturer, South Paris; H. L. Horne, merchant, Norway; William F. Jones, attorney at law, Norway; F. H. Noyes, merchant, Norway.

Carroll J. Gray

Carroll J. Gray passed away at his late home at Rockland, Friday, Dec. 13 at 9:45 with bronchial pneumonia at the age of 39 years. Mr. Gray was the son of Charles A. and Mary A. Gray and his early life was spent in Covington. Had his married at Norway, to Lena Packard by Rev. C. E. Angell and resided at Rockland for 10 years. He was the Station agent.

He is survived by his wife and one son, Richard, 11 years old, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Gray of Covington and two brothers, M. F. Gray of Boston and F. H. Gray of Wiscasset.

The funeral was held at Rockland Sunday, Rev. Pliny Allen, Jr., was the officiating clergyman. The remains were brought to Norway, Monday and a service held Tuesday at 10 o'clock. Burial took place at Pine Grove Cemetery.

George L. Noyes was notified by wire Tuesday that his son, Gordon M. Noyes had been severely wounded. The news followed an official report last week that Gordon, who had been missing since September, was with his company at the front, after being a prisoner by the Germans. Private Noyes was with the 9th Balloon Co.

Mrs. Mary Canwell has recovered from influenza and is employed at the carton shop in connection with the shoe factory.

C. Burton Hamilton has recently added a valuable collection of tropical butterflies to his large stock. They are beauties from Japan, India and South American countries. He has the rare "Atlas" which is the largest species of moth that has been found. This monster measures about six inches across the wings and came from Australia. Mr. Hamilton raised some 500 native moths from eggs collected early last fall and has sold or exchanged many from this group. Probably Bert has one of the largest collection of butterflies and moths in Oxford County.

L. M. Longley was in Lewiston on business Tuesday.

Norway Grange
Norway Grange visited their hall Dec. 14th. A picnic dinner was enjoyed after which the meeting was called to order at 1:30 by Worthy Master W. O. Perry. Officers present, Steward Charles Frost, A. Steward Clarence Buck, L. A. Steward, Emma Swan. Meeting opened in form. Minutes of last meeting read and approved. Matters were discussed and the reports of the Secretary and treasurer and the several committees were given and accepted. A Grange fair was decided on to be held at a date favorable to conditions. Voted to send the Master and his wife to the State Grange at Portland. The following officers were then elected for the year 1919.

Master—J. S. G. Abbott.
Overseer—Harry Goodwin.
Steward—Percy Upton.
Ass't. Steward—Norville Brown.
Chaplain—Grace Bennett.
Treas.—G. W. Richardson.
Sec.—Ella Perry.
C.—Viola Abbott.
C.—Viola Abbott.
P.—Fannie Richardson.
P.—Edith Knichy.
L. A. S.—Minnie Upton.
L. A. S.—Minnie Upton.

Owing to the death of Brother Frank P. Towne two executive committees were elected; W. S. Pierce, and Harlan Brown, this completed this list. Minutes read and approved, closed in form. It is earnestly hoped that every member will be loyal to their Captain and see that all dues and Red Letter Cards are in at the next meeting which will be held on December 28th, as at that time the scoring in the Contest closes.

The next meeting will be an all day session business in the forenoon with picnic dinner, followed by programs given by Captain, Ora Howe and assistants, Mary Gammon and Ethel Dunn, Gladys Greenleaf her assistants, Adeline DeCoster, and Annie Goodwin.

Pigs, Weights and Hopes
With an eight month old Cedarbrook pig, Louis I. Gilbert beats all competition at 305 pounds. Cost of feeding didn't enter into it at all. "Chocolates and cream was given and pig was gently 'stretched' every day. Louis never spoke above a whisper to it during its eight months existence for fear of shocking its nerves and stunting its growth.

Pleasant St., pig raisers haven't got on to the knack of raising big porkers yet. They will have to attend a course of training at some pig raising college or call on Louis Gilbert and learn how. Barber Cook thinks he can do it by changing breeds and he is booked for a Cedarbrook pig next spring.

Jim Favor thinks he did pretty well as he got pigs of the same litter up to 245 and 260 pounds. The week of the year, he has a care or feed. Geo. F. Hathaway, 244 and J. C. True's pig weighed 259 pounds. Scott Merrill didn't have the courage to weigh his pig and thus escaped being beaten.

Deductions From Conversations
John Walker is spending a short winter vacation in town. He came from Poland Springs last week. He has worked there for the past 27 years or seasons. Some of the time he has staid there the year round.

John didn't fail easily to telling his age. He admitted being born in Chatham, N. H., and of coming to Harrison when a boy and working for P. Tolman in the wire factory 16 years also of driving stage for Summer Davis 5 years.

During this time he was deputy sheriff for J. S. Webb for Chamberland County also for Oxford County under the late C. M. Wornell of Bethel 4 years and collected Harrison taxes 2 years and held other minor offices.

He is a way-up Mason, Commandery member and a Shriner and an all round good fellow. He also admits of assisting in the running of the Poland Springs Hotel Co., for 27 years come the 9th of next April.

Adding terms of service together and we have an accounting for 48 years regardless of the four years he held offices as we presume this was covered in his stage driving days. Allowing he was 20 when he went to work for P. Tolman this would bring him up to 68 years. We think he was less than 20 at that time as he don't look or act like a sixty-eight year old animal any.

Freeman Smith is home from Bath until Christmas. He has a long government job of plastering when he returns to his work.

Mrs. Lena Packard, Gray and son, Richard of Rockland, Maurice Gray of Boston and Mrs. B. E. Adkins of Somerville, Mass., were in town from Monday evening until Wednesday morning. They accompanied the remains of Mrs. Gray's husband, Carroll I. Gray from Rockland, and services were held here Tuesday. Burial in Pine Grove Cemetery.

Rev. C. W. Wiley, of the South Paris Congregational church occupied the pulpit at the Universalist church Sunday afternoon. Rev. C. G. Miller had not sufficiently recovered from his recent illness to attend both the Norway and South Paris services.

Freeland Howe is having a portion of the tenement in the rear of his Main St., brick block removed, giving a driveway from the John Cummings stable to Main St., between the block and the Howe store. Elden Stevens is doing the work.

Clarence W. Merrill is cutting wood for Almore Everett near Jim Hill. Mrs. Merrill is doing the housework in the camp which they occupy close to the wood lot.

Mercy Millett entertained the Busy Bee Sunday School class of the Baptist church Monday evening, at the home of Mrs. Randall O. Porter. Plans were made for the Christmas exercises, and dolls were dressed as presents for that time. Light refreshments were served. Mr. and Mrs. William E. Durr and Mrs. Irving Lovell were at Hebbron Sunday visiting Maud Durrell who is there for treatment. They found her condition somewhat improved.

HANOVER

James Hayford, Chester Howe and Elwood Richardson returned to their respective homes last week.

H. O. Chapman is assisting his son, Ezra in building an ice house.

C. F. Saunders and John Morse assisted M. A. Holt butcher, Thursday, at the B. W. White in town Friday.

Sunday School Services were held Sunday afternoon at the home of Maud Russell.

C. F. Saunders and M. A. Holt were in Rumford, Saturday.

E. W. Stearns and Nelson Lapham were at Bethel, Friday.

John Morse and Alton Bartlett went hunting over Scryby Saturday.

SOUTH PARIS

Merchandising was the subject of a lecture at Savoy theatre Monday evening by Will H. Farley, who represented the National Cash Register Co., of Dayton, Ohio. This instructive entertainment was arranged by George Eastman. Trade and attracted several hundred people, particularly business men, clerks and others interested in modern trade methods. Fifty or more stereoscopic slides illustrated the reason for bad business with a positive remedy given. Good advice was offered the tradesman and clerk for a better mutual understanding, with ways and means of winning the customers good will. A two reel Essanay feature "Troubles of a Merchant and How to Stop Them," gave one solution to the problem of making a large market business pass through an efficient system.

Among those who attended the State Grange this week were Mr. and Mrs. Frank S. Dudley, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Brooks, A. M. Ryerson, A. E. Morse and Mrs. A. N. Cairns. Charles H. George of Hebron went with the South Paris party.

Hamlin Lodge K of P visited Craigie Lodge at Oxford Tuesday evening and worked the rank of Knight.

Mrs. Emma T. Hubbard of Paris Hill occupies the first floor at the Fletcher house on Gothic St. Mrs. Annie Fletcher has gone to Portland for the winter.

Owing to a change in filing questionnaires at headquarters the local board rooms remain open to make the necessary changes here as an adjustment to the new method. The work is under the direction of the local chairman, Walter L. Gray and clerk, Priv. Earl C. Berry, of Westbrook.

The South Paris Congregational society received approximately $2500.00 in subscriptions during the Every Member Canvass. A budget of $2750.00 to cover all church expenses, and denominational benevolences has been drafted. The income from all sources will take care of every expense item during the coming year.

Mrs. Franklin Goldsmith entertained the Seneca Club Monday evening at her home on Pleasant St. A roll call was answered with current events. The Middle Atlantic States was the main topic, with their history by Mrs. Mary Shurtliff; National Resources by Grace Thayer, and Industries, Mrs. Mary Wheeler. Refreshments were served at 7 o'clock.

Rev. C. G. Miller occupied his pulpit Sunday morning as usual after an absence of two weeks. He is recovering rapidly from his recent illness.

William K. Kimball Circle, Ladies of the G. A. R., has elected the following officers for the coming year.

Pres.—Eva E. Walker.
V. P.—Mrs. Ellen M. Curtis.
J. V. P.—Mrs. Eva Record.
Treas.—Mrs. Eva R. Ordway.
Ass't. Treas.—Mrs. Elizabeth Edgerly.
Chaplain—Mrs. Elizabeth Buck.
Pat. Inst.—Mrs. Lydia A. Rounds.
Con.—Mrs. Laura L. March.
Guard—Mrs. Fie Kneeland.

Delegates—Mrs. Lydia A. Rounds, Mrs. Elizabeth Edgerly, Mrs. Sarah Chute, Mrs. S. S. Altman, Mrs. Franklin Maxin, Mrs. A. L. Alton, Mrs. Eva Record, Mrs. George Waterhouse, Mrs. Elizabeth Buck, Mrs. Lulu Fiechman, Mrs. Fie Kneeland.

The Ladies Aid of the Baptist church met with a big success at their recent fair clearing about $110.00. The vestry was prettily decorated with red and green and there were various tables. Apron table, was in charge of Mrs. Mary Stewart; food table, Mrs. Walter Dennison; dolls table, Mrs. Julia P. Morton; potted plants on sale by Ernest Crockett. In the evening the young people presented the following program: Vocal solo, Evelyn Wright; piano solo, Marion Wheeler; recitation, Master Hugh Morton; piano solo Master Herman Noyes; song, Master Richard Noyes; piano duet, Marion Hollis, Ruth Winslow; recitation, Rachel Small; song, Musa Taylor; piano solo, Margaret West; piano solo, Dorothy Denison.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Young have closed their home and are with Mrs. A. H. Double for the winter.
Wm. K. Kimball Post, G. A. R. has elected the following officers for the coming year:
Com.—W. S. Starbird.
V. P.—Mrs. M. E. Noyes.
J. V. P.—C. S. Wyman.
Surg.—W. Stuart.
Con.—John M. March.
O. D.—Franklin Maxin.
I. G.—Benjamin Hicks.
G. M. S.—William L. Gray.

Mrs. Ella Ripley and Mrs. Angie Hartwell are at Auburn for the winter with Mrs. Ripley's daughter, Mrs. Harry H. Glidden and family.

Arthur G. Thurlow has purchased from B. E. Adkins his shoe repairing business. This transfer includes most of the stock of second-hand articles carried with the business.

TEN USES FOR SALT

Salt in water will take insects from vegetables.
Tiles will look bright and clean if scrubbed with salt.
Salt dissolved in a little ammonia will remove grease spots.

To brighten carpets, wring a cloth out of salt water and rub over the carpets well.
A smoky or dull fire can be made clear by throwing a handful of salt over it.

Ink stains that are freshly made can be removed from carpets by successive applications of dry salt.

Nearly every kind of basket work, matting or china can be cleaned by washing with salt and water.

Handfuls of salt will clean saucepans and take away the unpleasant smell of onions if they have been cooked in them. Before adding vinegar to mint for sauce, always add a pinch of salt. This prevents the mint from going brown and greatly improves the flavor.

Less than one-third of the people of Maine have savings bank deposits

Five hundred thousand people, besides all of these, should own one or more War Savings Certificates and deposit them in their bank.

Bought today, a War Savings Certificate will draw over 4½% interest, and its full purchase price, with interest, is absolutely guaranteed by our national government.

After four years it becomes worth to you $5.00 for every $4.23 you pay now.

For $84.60 you can buy a full certificate, holding 20 stamps, on which your guaranteed profit, in four years, will be $15.40.

Buy what you can—from one stamp to twenty.

If you can, buy the legal limit—ten filled certificates for each member of your family.

You can borrow to buy these certificates without the slightest chance of risk, because they never lose value, but always gain.

CIVIL WAR TIME ECHOES

Extracts from letters written by Ephraim H. Brown of Norway when in the army in Virginia as a private in Co. F, 17th Maine, to his sister, also extracts from letters sent him by his wife from Norway, Me.—Editor.

Ft. Carroll, Washington, D. C., Sept. 7, 1862. You will be surprised to receive a letter from the above place and to know it is from your brother, Ephraim. Well, it is a fact. I'm in the army. Enlisted July 26 and went to Camp King, Portland three days later. Arrived here on the 23rd ult. at 12 o'clock, coming through with out much sleep or food. We came by rail, boat and on foot.

At Washington we were taken to Fort Baker and halted for the night, laid down on the ground and slept pretty well. In the morning we pulled ourselves together and marched two and one-half miles and pitched our tents.

Ft. Carroll is on the Potomac about three miles down river, south from Washington. It is a beautiful place, good water and air. Would enjoy it if not so far from home. My courage is good and faith strong with regard to the final settlement of this affair. So far as I can judge from what I hear and see the tide is setting strongly against us just at this time. It looks to me the Rebels are about to make an attack on Washington. I don't believe they can take it but they mean to try.

The battle a week ago at Bull Run was an awful affair and I think disastrous to our side though am unable to get any reliable facts. We could distinctly hear the cannon. It was about fifteen miles away.

Bro. Aaron (Brown) is in the 32d Massachusetts, Co. I, and is at Camp Parker, Alexandria, Va. Not more than fifteen miles from here. You probably think it strange I should volunteer to be a soldier. Well I do myself. But I am in for three years if we don't wind up the concern before that time. E. H. Brown, Co. F, 17th Maine Regiment.

OUR SERVICE And What it Means to You

We Have a Joint Interest in This Community

And We Wish to Join With You in Every Way to Promote the Communities' Interests

In a sense, this community is like a farm—it pays according to the way in which it is treated.

The successful farmer co-operates with his farm. Knowing that certain soil elements are necessary to healthy crop growth, he sees to it that these elements are maintained.

The same principle holds good in community development.

Our community is composed of two closely-related elements—town and country. They are both essential to healthy community growth.

Neglect or mistreatment of either of them by the other affects both—it injures the whole community. Both elements must be maintained.

Accomplishing this is simply a matter of sincere co-operation among all of us in this community.

Our idea of our own part to play for community good in a business way is—To sell only such implements as have the quality to give high grade results in the field.

To consider good performance by our implements as a part of our obligation.

To sell every implement at a fair price.

To practice the square deal towards each and every customer.

On this basis we invite the co-operation of every farmer in this community.

LET US SUGGEST

SUPERBA DESSERTS

RED RASPBERRIES, PEARS, PEACHES, PINEAPPLE. Indeed any of the dozen and one SUPERBA fruits.

"Like Mother used to make"—"Melt in your mouth" (phrases you've known since childhood) inadequately express the delightful flavor, wholesome quality that distinguishes these unequalled, reasonably priced desserts.

Why Bother To Cook Desserts? Why spend hours over a hot stove, getting dessert for dinner—supper—company when such delightful foods as these are so easily obtainable?

Your dealer gladly recommends SUPERBA Canned Goods, Teas and Coffee.

"We joined—have you?"

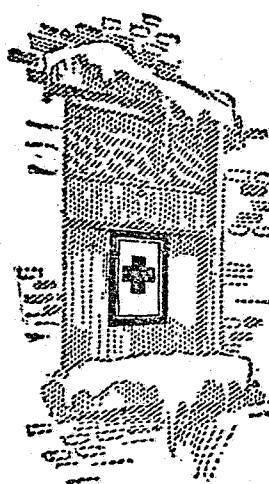

When you have that button pinned on your coat, you can look the whole world in the face—and feel proud.

It means you have answered "present" to the Red Cross Christmas Roll Call for 1919. It means that you have placed your personal stamp of approval on the work of the Greatest Mother in the World and that you have given her the moral support of your membership.

Red Cross work must go on!

As long as Americans are under arms across the sea, as long as the results of war, pestilence and famine afflict the world, the need for the Red Cross will exist.

America has never failed in doing its full duty—that duty now is universal membership in the Red Cross.

SOUTH ALBANY

Walter Tubbs, the snow shoe maker, is hauling ash from this vicinity to his factory at Norway. The powerful engine takes the big loads up the hills here while the big chains on the rear wheels are like teeth biting the snow and frozen ground as though it were a live thing and sure of its ability to do what would once have been thought an impossibility.

There is much sickness around here at the present time. The most of the afflicted ones are improving and out again. Lillian McAllister who was at work for Mrs. Herman Holt, is sick in bed there; also the two children, Chester and Ruth. Mr. and Mrs. Holt were only just recovering from the same disease when the rest were taken down with it. Mrs. Roy Wardwell and little son, Arthur, are gaining and Mr. Wardwell, Cecil Kimball and Ernest Grover are improving. Winfield McAllister is out again.

Beth Kimball and daughter Lucy visited at Merritt Savin's one day recently. Will McAllister has been making a sled for his brother, David McAllister. Mrs. Charles Marston visited her daughter, Mrs. Jesse Littlefield, at Norway Waterford Friday, and attended the grange meeting in the afternoon.

Merton Kimball of South Waterford was here last week, Wednesday, and butchered a pig and cow for Ernest Brown.

Harry McKee of West Stoneham was here on business one day last week.

Ernest Grover has been stopping at W. E. Canwell's a few days. Mr. Grover is slowly recovering from a bad attack of the prevailing epidemic.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Millett and daughter Sylvia of Waterford visited at Merritt Savin's last week, Monday. Mr. Millett bought some sheep of Isaac Flint.

Ernest McAllister of East Stoneham was at his brother's, Will McAllister's last week, Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Scudde recent visitors at James Cobb's. Frank Abbott and Elgin Greenleaf of North Norway recently visited at Leon Kimball's.

Ben Russell of Lovell was at Will McAllister's Saturday, with Walter Lord and sold Mr. Lord a pair of steers, which Mr. McAllister was wintering for him.

Carroll Lewis of Albany was through here with a very pretty pair of dark red Durham steers, which he had bought of Virgil Littlefield of East Stoneham.

EAST OTISFIELD

Cyrus Barton, who works for the Rickers at Poland Springs has been visiting his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Wood, for a few days.

Mrs. Lizzie Lamb is confined to the house with a sore eye.

Arthur Haskell of West Poland who has been working for Ernest Peaco up to the Merrill Peaco house doing carpenter work for the past month or more, finished work, Wednesday.

Sara Hamblin of Spurr's Corner is teaching the fall term of school at East Otisfield. School closed Wednesday, Dec. 19th, with an entertainment in the evening given by the school at the Hall. Home-made fudge, corn balls and popcorn will be on sale. After the entertainment they will have a fish pond, also a sociable.

Proceeds to go for the school league. Saturday, Dec. 14th, Bert Jilson, Nora Scribner and Carrie Wood helped Fernald Keene dress poultry for the Boston market.

Loren Stearns had the misfortune to fall from a building Thursday, striking on the back of his head. He was unconscious about three hours before he came to himself. Monday he was so he rode out.

Mrs. Nettie Pottle and two daughters; Nellie and Stella, are home from Hebron where the girls are going to school.

BRYANT'S POND

Our Town a Trade Center
Since that wonderful day in 1881 when the first train from Portland arrived in Woodstock our town has been a center of trade and business for a considerable area of the central part of Oxford county. In the days immediately following the building of the railroad there was a considerable boom, several stores came into existence, the many people coming here from Andover, Rumford, Mexico and several other back towns furnishing considerable traffic to the traders here as this was their nearest railroad station.

Many changes have taken place since those days. Amos Dudley to-day being the only one left of our old time merchants. Herbert Libby and Eugene Cole probably coming next in line. There have been ups and downs in the trade and business coming here as probably most other centers of trade have experienced but on the whole the volume has been fairly steady and our trades have enjoyed a fair degree of prosperity. To-day we have in our town a dozen stores which we feel are a credit to the community and which are deserving of the support of the community. Like all other citizens these years of war to our traders, have not meant clear blue skies and smooth sailings on the sea of prosperity. A rising market has its disadvantages as well as advantages and there are many serious problems confronting our traders that the average citizen does not take into consideration.

Let us as good citizens stand by our merchants in our home town, speak a good word for them and help them so that they may be enabled to serve better as the years go by. Not that we should buy here when it is clearly to our advantage to buy elsewhere but when the saying by going to the cities or large towns or sending to mail order houses is hardly large enough to take into account or is not even saving at all, let us spend the money here at home where it can go toward the building up of Woodstock instead of Chicago or other cities. We need more trade and business here at Bryant's Pond but the question that confronts us is how to get it.

We believe the answer is, bring the people here. Make our little town so attractive that people want to come here to trade. We need to unite and work together as never before to attain this end and each business man will receive his fair share of trade. Make our town easy to reach, improve the highways leading into our village build up our schools more and more so that people will desire to locate here for the educational advantages and make our little place so free from gossip and slander that it will stand as one of the gems of Maine.

Let us be only just beginning to realize a little the wonderful possibilities and opportunities awaiting the good old town of Woodstock if each loyal citizen will rise to the occasion and do his patriotic duty. It is up to us.

Daisy Baker's Mother Says

You'll save money and you'll actually save flour by using WILLIAM TELL, because you'll have "better luck" and less waste, and your bread will have that superior flavor that only WILLIAM TELL can give.

Things don't go wrong with WILLIAM TELL and that means a big saving in itself. Besides, it goes further and that means more saving.

Taking everything into consideration, I have found that WILLIAM TELL is the only flour for me to use.

Ask your grocer for WILLIAM TELL—the flour that goes further and bakes better.
